

WORLDWIDE MESSAGE TO JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

Why do Jehovah's Witnesses Visit their Neighbors' Homes with Books They Have Gotten from the Catholic Church?

Did You Know?

The New Testament Books known to Jehovah's Witnesses as The Christian Greek Scriptures were compiled by the Bishops of the Holy Catholic Church and agreed upon at the Council of Carthage in 397 A.D.

Did You Know?

The Bishop who was most influential in determining the books to include in the New Testament Canon was a man named Athanasius who was severely persecuted for teaching that Jesus is Almighty God—a doctrine that the Jehovah's Witnesses deny and that Jehovah's Witnesses claim is not found in the New Testament.

(See <http://www.newadvent.org/cathen/02035a.htm>)

Does it seem strange?

That the Jehovah's Witness would use books written and compiled by the Catholic Church—a Church that they identify as teaching falsehood—to promote their own peculiar doctrines which are vastly different from what the Catholic Church teaches?
